ALLIES SOUGHT MEETING

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Assembly in Washington within a few weeks of a great international war council was foreshadowed by an announcement from the state department today that British commission headed by Arthur J. Balfour, minister of foreign affairs is expected to arrive within ten days to discuss with the government here questions connected with the conduct of the war. In addition to the foreign minister the commission will include Admiral DeChare of the British navy; General Bridges of the army and the governor of the Bank of England, attended by a numerous staff.

French Commission To Come
This was as far as the announcement made by the state department goes, but it was learned authoritatively that a French commission composed of officials and officers, equally as distinguished as the British representatives will also be in Washington about the same time. This commission will be headed by M. Viviani, at present minister of the justice in the French cabinet, and formerly premier. It is not known definitely whether any of the other allied powers will send commissioners to Washington owing to the difficulties in passage and the probable delay, the interests of these governments will probably be confined to their resident ambassadors.

Beyond the statement that the object of the commission is to discuss generally questions of policy connected with the war, no information was given out by the state department. It was made clear, however, that in no way will the United States government depart from the traditional policy of avoiding anything in the nature of political alliances, the of course that does not exclude full and intimate military and naval co-operation in the prosecution of the war.

Allies Sought Conference
The conference is stated to have been sought by the allied leaders themselves in order to discuss every phase of the war. No attempt will be made to go into details or technical considerations as the general policies involved are too stupendous to permit of it.

One of the first questions to be taken up will be the distribution of the $3,000,000,000 loan to the allies, for which President Wilson has asked congress to provide. The greatest problem before the conference is stated to be the maintenance of the flow of American munitions and food stuffs first by naval co-operation to fight the German submarine; second by construction of a great fleet of wooden merchantmen and third by ways and means to increase American manufacture and the allies ability to pay for the products.

Naval co-operation is understood to contemplate the policing of all north and South American waters by the American and French vessels engaged in that work and the safeguarding by American ships of at least part of the sea lane to Europe. Whether the latter will necessitate the actual sending of American craft to the other side has not been announced, but if it does arrangements already have been made to offer the port of Brest in France as an American naval base.

Understand Military Situation
The military participation of the United States in broad terms, the it is discussed on all sides that this country will not attempt to send an army to Europe for the present. The military situation of this country is well understood by officials abroad. There is, however, an intense desire on the part of the general public in the entente countries to see a small division of American troops at the front.

The complete reversal of American relations to the entente powers thru the abandonment of neutrality in favor of war will necessitate an entire re-adjustment of the country's diplomatic situation. The allied policies of blockade, mail censorship, blacklist and rationing of Holland and Scandinavia originally necessitated by the exigencies of war and bitterly protested thruout by this country as a neutral, must now be considered by the United States from an entirely new angle.

Not to Abandon Restrictions
While it is obvious that none of the restrictions built up by the allies would be abandoned it is very doubtful as to how far this country will go in actually co-operating with them.

ASSURE PRESIDENT WAR
REVENUE BILL WILL PASS

Introduction of Bill Precedes
Visit of Executive to Capitol

Leaders Hope to Pass Measure Authorizing a $5,000,000,000 Bond Issue and $2,000,000,000 in Certificates of Indebtedness Before Saturday Night.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Assurance that the $7,000,000,000 war revenue measure will pass the house quickly and that consideration of new taxation plans for raising part of the money will begin immediately, were given President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo today by congressional leaders at the capitol. Introduction in the house of the revenue bill, authorizing a $5,000,000,000 bond issue and a $2,000,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness preceded an unexpected visit of the president to the capitol by a few minutes. Democratic Leader Kitchin introduced the measure with a favorable report from the full committee and announced that debate on it would begin Friday morning at 11 o'clock. It is hoped to pass the bill before Saturday night.

Expect Little Opposition.
Little opposition is expected to the principal feature of the $5,000,000,000 bond issue, the provision that not more than $2,000,000,000 from the proceeds shall be used to extend credit to the allies and the remaining $3,000,000,000 applied to expenditures incurred in the prosecution of the war by this country.

Involving a new taxation plan for raising revenue to meet the certificates of indebtedness, however, the administration leaders realize they face a serious problem. Not only will much trouble be experienced in getting Republicans and Democrats together but each side is possessed of many different ideas that will be difficult to reconcile.

Mr. Kitchin said tonight that he expected at least two weeks would be required to frame a bill.

Administration and congressional leaders are generally determined that the tax shall not be of a class character regardless of the amount. History they say, shall not designate this as either a poor or rich man's war.

Consider Proposed Carefully.
Financial authorities are carefully considering proposals to raise new revenues on increased income and stamp taxes and taxes of excess profits, inheritances, distilled liquors and beers, cigars and tobacco, amusement places, the postal service, soft drink and newspaper, billboard and other advertising.

Probably the most far-reaching proposal yet suggested is that the postal charges be raised. It has been proposed that the present one cent rate for drop and circular letters be raised to one and a half or two cents and the regular two cent rate to three. No tax suggested, is argued, in favor of this proposal, would reach so many persons and be objected to by so few.

In connection with this postal plan is another to tax newspapers and periodicals in proportion to the amount of advertising they carry.

WILL CONSTRUCT PLANTS
AT CHARLESTON, W. VA.

Secretary Daniels Announces Selection of Site of Armory and Projectile Factories.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The government's armory and projectile factories for which congress appropriated $12,700,000 will be built at Charleston, W. Va., a location recommended by a special navy board as offering an ideal combination of military safety and easy access to manufacturing materials.

In announcing the selection tonight Secretary Daniels said construction work would begin at once and would be hurried to completion. The board personally inspected locations of 23 cities chosen out of more than 100 which offered sites.

For the armory plant an appropriation of $11,000,000 is available, but a greater sum may be asked of congress before construction is finished. The initial appropriation for the projectile plant is $1,700,000. Charleston offered several acceptable sites free of cost.

The investigating board headed by Rear-Admiral Fletcher, pointed out in its report that most of the sites suggested had to be rejected because of geographical location offering inadequate security from invasion in war time.

ANNOUNCES FIGURES ON
ACCIDENTS TO WORKMEN

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Industrial Board of Illinois which has charge of the administration of the workmen's compensation law of the state, received 2,363 reports of accidents to workmen during March. Of these 40 resulted fatally, nine in partial disability and 3,993 in temporary total disability.

The total compensation paid injured workmen or to the dependents of those killed while at their work was $292,126.46, while almost $50,000 additional was paid for medical attention for the workmen. At the close of the month there were pending 65 arbitration cases, 417 review cases and 81 lump sum petitions.

NAME ASSISTANT
TREASURY SECRETARY

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Oscar T. Crosby, of Warrenton, Va., was today appointed assistant secretary of the treasury. Mr. Crosby recently was connected with the American commission for relief of Belgium and in charge of the work in Belgium and northern France.

APPOINT BOARD TO DIRECT RAILWAYS

Heads of Principal Railroads Act at Meeting in Washington

COMPOSED OF FIVE MEN

Purpose is To Give Government
Best Possible Service in Handling Troops and Supplies

HARRISON HEADS BODY

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Heads of the principal railroads in the United States, meeting here today at the call of the council of national defense, named a board of five men to direct the operation of American railways thruout the war.

It was announced that the purpose of the board would be to give the government the best possible service, not only in transporting troops and military supplies but in the handling of every necessary commodity.

Members of the Board
The members of the board are: Fairfax Harrison of the Southern Railway; Howard Elliott of the New Haven; Samuel Rea, of the Pennsylvania; Hale Holden of the Burlington and Julius Kruttschnitt of the Southern Pacific.

Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio and chairman of the defense council's advisory commission, will be an ex-officio member of the board and the interstate commerce commission will be asked to name another.

The board or central executive committee as it is called in an announcement by the defense council will operate thru a special committee on national defense named some time ago by the American Railway association. Mr. Harrison, chairman also of this committee, announced tonight its membership would be increased to 23, divided into sub-committees, one each in the six military departments of the country.

These three sub-committees will deal directly with department commanders and with the quartermasters' departments. The railway association's car service commission will serve as a general sub-committee.

To Decide Matter of Policy
The railroad board will decide all matters of general railroad policy and in some respects its duties will resemble those of the British railroad board which is operating for the government the English lines. The railway association's defense committee as it exists now in the four military departments already has worked out plans for military co-operation with the army which will be followed in a general way.

Transportation needs of the government were considered today by executives, representing the two hundred and fifty thousand miles of American railroads at the meeting held in response to the call of Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. It was decided during the war to co-ordinate activities in the continental railway system, thus merging for the time being all their national transportation facilities.

Mr. Willard and other presidents discussed the plans which would make the railroads most efficient in meeting the transportation problems especially the movement of foodstuffs and freight, and to also promptly meet the demands of the government incident to the mobilization of troops.

NINETEEN BRITISH VESSELS ARE SUNK

LONDON, April 11.—During the week ending April 8, seventeen British merchant vessels of more than 1,600 tons were sunk. Two vessels of less than 1,600 tons were sent down. This was officially announced today.

The statement follows: "Merchant vessels of over 100 tons of all nationalities arriving and sailing from United Kingdom ports, arrivals 2,044; sailings 2,367. British merchant ships sunk by mines or submarines over 1,600 tons, seventeen, including two sunk during the previous fortnight. British merchant vessels unsuccessfully attacked, fourteen, including four during the previous fortnight. British fishing vessels sunk, six, including one sunk during the previous week."

The current report shows a slight decrease from that of last week in losses of large vessels and a marked falling off in the number of smaller merchant craft destroyed.

ACQUIT STATE AUDITOR.

Warrington, Mo., April 11.—George E. Hackman, state auditor, today was acquitted of the charge of fraud in office, based on alleged deceipt while he was county clerk of Warren county.

BEGIN GRAIN PRICE PROBE

Chicago, April 11.—The federal grand jury's investigation of grain prices began today. A truck load of books and other records were taken into the grand jury room.

TWO REPUBLICS WILL GIVE MORAL SUPPORT

Argentina and Costa Rica Give Assurances

Argentina Chooses Middle Course between Brazil and Chile—Costa Rica Endorses Wilson's Course and is "Ready to Prove it if Necessary."

Washington, April 11.—Without formally announcing a abandonment of their neutrality, two more Latin American republics, Argentina and Costa Rica have given assurances of their moral support for the United States in the war against Germany.

Chooses Middle Course.
Argentina, choosing a middle course between those of Brazil and Chile, her sister nations in the influential A. B. C. trio, has notified the state department that she "recognizes the justice" of this country's stand against German aggression. The communication contains no intimation, however, that the Argentine authorities contemplate an actual break with Berlin.

Little Costa Rica, just emerging from the throes of a revolution, sent word to her diplomatic representatives here today that she endorsed the course of President Wilson and was "ready to prove it if necessary."

Argentina's position was defined in a note reaching the state department today in answer to the notification by this government of a state of war. The communication is regarded here as defining a status just short of an open break.

Assumes Grave Risk.
It is recognized that in defining her position so frankly, Argentina has assumed the grave risk of having Germany break relations with her and by some diplomats her attitude is regarded as little less than an invitation to Germany to regard her as unfriendly.

Costa Rica's announcement was unexpected for the new government set up there by Federico Tinoco, and perfected today by a legislative declaration of his election as president. The administration was introduced by the United States and the state department gave notice when Tinoco overthrew the Gonzalez administration several weeks ago that it would not recognize Tinoco even if he were elected later.

Brazil Announces Break
Rio Janeiro April 11.—The breaking off of diplomatic relations with Germany is officially announced by the Brazilian government in a communication to the press. A combination of reasons is given for this action, the official communication reading:

"Considering that the inquiry and conclusions called by the location at Paris in the subject of the torpedoed ship of the Steamer Parana establish the fact that the Parana was proceeding under reduced speed, was illuminated outside and inside, including the shield with the name 'Brazil' and considering that the steamer received no warning to stop, according to the unanimous deposition of the crew, and, further, that the steamer was torpedoed and was shelled five times and that the submarine made no attempt to save life, then in the presence of such aggravating circumstances and in accord with the note of February 9 and the telegram of February 13, sent by the Brazilian government to the legation at Berlin, the Brazilian government severs relations with Germany."

ASSERTS PEOPLE SHOULD
CONSERVE POTATOES

Authority on Potatoes States it is the Greatest Patriotic Duty Within the Power of the Average American.

Chicago, April 11.—The greatest patriotic duty within the power of the average American citizen today is the conservation of the nation's potato supply, Eugene M. Grubb, an authority on potatoes, told members of the Hamilton Club at a luncheon here today. The potato has enabled Germany to prolong the war at least two years, he said.

"There is at this time in America an insufficient supply of seed potatoes to plant a 1917 crop large enough to satisfy the needs of our people," Mr. Grubb continued.

"All of the seed potatoes now on hand should be planted and it is a patriotic duty of every citizen to see that the crop is brought to maturity."

As an example of what the United States can do through conservation of the potato, Mr. Grubb cited results obtained by German agriculturists, who, he said, have increased their production to forty bushels per capita as against three and one-half bushels per capita produced annually in the United States.

Mr. Grubb asserted that one pound of baked potato is equal in food value to 1 1/5 pounds of boiled potatoes, 5 7/8 ounces of boiled beef; one pound of chicken, 1 1/2 pounds of codfish; ten pints of bullion or beef tea; three pints of skimmed milk; eight eggs or nine ounces of baked beans.

STOP SPECULATION
IN BUTTER AND EGGS

CHICAGO, April 11.—Speculation in butter and eggs through the Chicago butter and egg board, was abolished "as a patriotic duty" by unanimous vote of the directors today. This was accomplished by abolishing all rules covering deals in these products for future delivery. Dealers desiring to assure stocks for future delivery may deal direct with shippers as individuals, but the action of the board will, it is said, practically eliminate speculation.

WILSON INSISTS ON STAFF ARMY PLANS

Executive Confers With
Speaker Clark and Majority
Leader Kitchin

PLAN FOR VOLUNTEERS

Approximately 500,000 Men
May Be Given Opportunity to Volunteer for Term of War

WOULD TOTAL 724,000

WASHINGTON, April 11.—President Wilson in a conference with Speaker Champ Clark and Majority Leader Kitchin at the capitol today, insisted on the terms of the administration plan for making a large army on the principle of selective draft. At the same time, however, it was learned that the war department virtually had decided on plans under which opportunity would be given for approximately 500,000 men to volunteer for service for the term of the war.

The net result of the new plan would be to make the total national guard and regular force to be organized first independent of the selective draft approximately 724,000 men making room for the absorption of half a million volunteers. No attempt to enlist men will be made however, until congress has acted and authority is granted to enlist such volunteers for the duration of the war only.

Talks For Nearly an Hour.
The president talked for nearly an hour with Speaker Clark and Representative Kitchin and discussed the administration army plan in detail. He made it clear that it had been decided that it was the only way to meet the demand for a great and efficient fighting force.

Both Speaker Clark and Mr. Kitchin told the president that much sentiment existed in congress against the plan principally on the ground that draft should not be resorted to until an effort had been made to raise an army thru volunteers.

Careful re-consideration of the terms of the existing national defense act is responsible for the contemplated change of the administration's policy in regard to the mobilization of the national guard for war. Officials now think the law grants the states the right to organize additional guard units up to the full limit of 800 men to a congressional district. If that view is sustained by army legal authorities such additional regiments as any state may decide to form will be recognized by the federal government and be drafted into the federal service when that action is taken with respect to units already organized.

Would Give Guard 140,000.
The effect of this change would be to make it possible for the national guard to have a full strength of 140,000 enlisted men in the first element of the wartime national army. The present policy of the war department of drafting only those units now existing and such additional units as may be necessary to fill out divisional organization or which have armories and other evidences of permanency would produce about 330,000 men.

The department has decided, Secretary Baker told the house military committee during the day, to raise the regular army up to the full strength prescribed by the national defense act, 287,000, immediately on the passage of the war organization bill by congress. This means that three additional increments, totalling approximately 75,000 men, would be required.

Would Not Impair Training.
Previously it had been thought wise to add only the 1918 increment, conserving the capacity of the regular establishment as a training force. It has been determined, however, that three additional increments can be absorbed without impairing seriously the training efficiency of the force.

Secretary Baker pointed out that men who now enlist in either service bind themselves to serve three years with the colors and three years in the reserve. Recruitment of the National Guard beyond peace strength would not be attempted, he said, until authorization for the wartime volunteers was granted. For the regular army, efforts to fill up on a permanent basis, to peace strength will be continued until congress acts. The men will be needed even after the war emergency has passed. The war volunteers are counted on, however, to bring the regiments up to war strength with little delay.

JAMES PEASE DIES
Chicago, April 11.—James Pease, for years a well known leader in Republican state and city politics, died today at St. Luke's Hospital after an illness of nearly a year. He is survived by a widow and three children.

DYNAMITE SALOON SAFE

Rock Island, Ill., April 11.—The safe in a new saloon recently opened by O. Seidlitz was dynamited early this morning, the burglars getting $1,000 and making good their escape.

WILL BRING SUFFRAGE
AMENDMENT TO TEST

Suffragists Decide to Act When Senate Kills Bill

Seek To Put Measure On House Calendar Despite Committee's Unfavorable Recommendations—Senate Defeats Bill To Pension Judges.

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—The suffrage amendment, alliance, defeated in the senate today and in the house judiciary committee yesterday determined this afternoon to bring the proposed constitutional amendment for full suffrage to a test in the house tomorrow on the question of concurrence in the committee report. The alliance workers sought tonight to line up the necessary 77 votes to put the amendment resolution on the house calendar despite the committee's unfavorable recommendation.

Defeat Pension Bill.
A bill by Senator Barr to provide a pension for judges who retire at the age of sixty-five after twenty-four years' service on the bench was beaten in the Illinois Senate today receiving only 24 votes of the 26 needed. Senator Barr gave notice he would ask its reconsideration tomorrow.

Another bill by Senator Barr to prevent the removal of county seats until 1930 and to forbid considering removals thereafter, often after twenty-five years also was beaten.

A house bill by Representative Jackson to forbid showing any moving pictures calculated to incite race riots was fought by Senator Denvir, but passed at the instance of Senator Ettelson.

The house today passed the $955,834 appropriation to pay ordinary expenses of the national guard and naval reserve.

Pass Buck Measure.

The Buck civil service bill to exempt from classified service many state employees and to deprive discharged persons of the right of trial except when religious or political prejudice is alleged was passed by the senate by a vote of thirty to fifteen today.

The Buck bill was opposed vigorously by civil service reform organizations, which declared it was opening the back door to a repeal of the civil service law. It was supported by state officials.

Senators Hull and Austin alone in the Republican ranks voted against the measure. Democrats presented a solid strength against the bill.

Report Bill Unfavorably.

The Hamlin bill proposing compulsory military training in the high schools of Illinois was reported back to the house with an unfavorable recommendation today by the military affairs committee.

The committee also reported back unfavorably the Tuttle bill proposing creation of a state military reserve corps.

A resolution declaring that conscription was a reflection on the patriotism of the citizens and urging congress not to adopt any system of compulsory military service until it had been fully established that the volunteer system will not raise a sufficient army, was introduced by Senator Latham of Saline county today and referred to the executive committee.

TO RELEASE GUARDS WITH DEPENDENT FAMILIES

General Dickinson Telegraphs Federal Order to Commanders of Illinois National Guard.

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—Adjutant General Frank S. Dickinson telegraphed commanders of Illinois National Guard regiments tonight to grant discharges to men with dependent families, as ordered by Major General Barry, commanding the central department today.

General Dickinson also arranged to comply with a new federal order, which creates what is considered an extraordinary division in the state guard—a division of "strays" including those men who have failed to take the federal oath but are still in the state militia service. These men, the federal order rules are to be mustered out of the federal service, deprived of all equipment belonging to the United States, but are still subject to the order of the adjutant general as state militiamen, until some further disposition is made of them.

The latter order will affect several hundred guardsmen, as members of a number of regiments have declined to take the federal oath.

ASSERT TESTIMONY OF OXMAN WAS "FRAMED"

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 11.—Attorneys for the defense in the bomb conspiracy cases, in which a number of defendants, including the alleged leader, Thomas J. Mooney, have been convicted announced tonight they had secured positive proof that the testimony of F. C. Oxman, the principal witness against Mooney was "framed" and that they would swear out a warrant for Oxman's arrest at once. Information of the alleged conspiracy they said was obtained from F. E. Riegall of Grayville, Ill., who was said to have been asked by Oxman to come to San Francisco as a witness to corroborate Oxman's testimony.

ARREST GERMAN.

New York, April 11.—Emil Reinert, a German, who appeared as a prosecution witness against two compatriots recently convicted here as spies, was arrested today and held in $5,000 bond on a charge of having weapons in his possession. He pleaded not guilty. He has been under government surveillance for some time.

PLACE BLAME FOR
BLAST ON EMPLOYEE

High Official of Ammunition Corporation Makes
Statement

SPURS INVESTIGATIONS

Manager of Company Places
Number of Known Dead at 116—Missing Number 36

SEVENTY IN HOSPITALS

CHESTER, Pa., April 11.—A statement today by a high official of the Eddystone Ammunition corporation placed the blame of yesterday's explosion on a disloyal employee who is thought to have sacrificed his life with the 116 known dead, most of whom were young women.

Development Spurs Investigations.
This development late today spurred the investigations of the catastrophe already under way by federal, state, county, local officials and officials of the company. Numerous suspects were rounded up here, in Philadelphia and Villa Nova, Pa., and in Camden, N. J. The arrests so far, however, have apparently furnished no tangible clue to the perpetrator of the alleged plot.

The statement of the company's responsible representative who declined to permit the use of his name, said the tragedy "was the result of a diabolical plot conceived in the degenerate brain of a demon in human guise" and that the triple explosion was due to a bomb manufactured from a shell by one of the employees. Beyond this information the official refused to disclose further details.

It is known however, that federal agents are tonight concentrating their efforts on running down the clue to the explanation of the explosion from this angle.

Unless the bomb was timed, it was explained, the plotter must have met the same fate as the rest of the victims.

Number of Known Dead 116.
The number of known dead announced late today by Captain W. M. Wilhelm, vice president and general manager of the company, after a fairly complete canvass of the lists of employees and the victims, was placed at 116 and of these fifty two had been identified. Identification is proceeding slowly because of the charred and mangled condition of most of the bodies. Unofficial reports of missing today placed the number at thirty six, but it is thought many of these will have been accounted for when the confusion attached to the disaster calms down. Between sixty and seventy injured were still in hospitals here and at Ridley Park, near the scene of the explosion.

The belief that the explosion was deliberate on the part of a fanatic or an employee who believed he was doing a patriotic duty for a foreign nation now at war is shared by Albin B. Johnson, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, which owns the buildings occupied by the Eddystone Ammunition corporation, and Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the corporation. In statements today each expressed their conviction that the catastrophe was the work of "enemy aliens."

WESLEYAN STUDENTS
OFFER SERVICES TO U. S.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., April 11.—One hundred and eighty two men students of the Illinois Wesleyan University here today enrolled in four volunteer companies and will offer their services to Uncle Sam if needed. The young women, not to be outdone, also formed a company under command of the teacher of German. The list of men volunteers is expected to reach over 200 as the law department was not represented today.

SEVEN THOUSAND PARADE.

Port Madison, Pa., April 11.—Seven thousand people, one thousand of them women and school children participated in a loyalty parade here this evening. The parade was eleven blocks long and the procession passed along flag-dedeked streets.

HEALTH TOPICS OF VAST IMPORTANCE

Today the Illinois Public Health and Welfare Association will begin its convention. Subjects of infantile paralysis, state control of epidemics, city waste collection and disposal, sanitary surveys and others of like character will be discussed. Health topics and sanitation are especially timely themes now, for public health has close relationship to the war preparedness program. If great bodies of men are assembled, health and sanitation must necessarily have the most careful consideration. Food is said to be the chief factor in winning wars, but health is a very close second and, in fact, food has a very close relationship to the health problems of an army.

GET NEW IDEAS OF AMERICANISM

Worried Germans who do not know much about the American citizenship regulations and who have no real conception of Americanism, may learn something of the New York office in an endeavor to complete their naturalization or to take the first steps toward citizenship. The questions asked by some of these men reveal how little they understand the country of their adoption. As they remember conditions which have prevailed in the land of the Kaiser, with its military system, they are slow to comprehend the generosity of the American government toward them. They are being told that all that Uncle Sam expects of them now is to observe the U. S. laws and to keep their mouths shut.

THEIR WORK ACCOMPLISHED

One wonders just what Progressive party leaders are expecting to bring about from their conference scheduled for St. Louis today. The official call declared that the purpose is to adopt permanent working plans for the future of the party. The last election demonstrated clearly that the great majority of those who made up the Progressive party have returned to the Republican or Democratic party. Then the principles enunciated by the party have been assimilated by the two old parties. In other words, whatever were the good purposes of the third party, they have been accomplished. So why this conference?

WOMEN'S GROWING POLITICAL STRENGTH

The triumphant entry of the Hon. Jeanette Rankin upon the Congress stage at the present session recalls the fact that the beginning of President Wilson's first administration the political power of women was less than half of what it is today. Then only 2,491,744 women could vote in the national elections. During these brief years women have won full suffrage in Nevada and Montana, presidential suffrage in Illinois, North Dakota, Ohio and Indiana, and congressional suffrage in Arkansas.

The total number of states where women vote is now sixteen—one third of all the states in the Union! 6,630,253 women are now eligible to vote for president; 2,926,326 to vote for congress; 7,037,158 to vote for one or the other. This means that one-third of the senate, one-fourth of the house and one-fourth of the electoral college now come from states where women vote in national elections.

TRAINING CAMPS FOR ARMY OFFICERS

The Plattsburg idea of army training which attracted comparatively little attention last summer is now coming into its own. The government has decided to adopt the Plattsburg plan of civilian training camps which will be established on a nation wide scale. These camps, however, will be particularly for officers and the men who desire to enter the service as officers will be given three months of vigorous training.

It is recognized that there are comparatively few men in the country qualified to serve as officers and the present plan will give civilians the opportunity of preparing themselves in a comparatively short period for this important work. It will also make it possible for some men who are beyond the age limit for enlistment in the regular way to do their share of the army work. There is something more of glamor about serving as an army officer than as a private; but there may not be a great rush to these training camps, for aside from the rigorous work, there is a vast amount of responsibility which must rest upon those civilians who volunteer to take special training to fit themselves as officers.

A DESIRABLE CENSORSHIP

Ordinarily newspaper censorship is not a desirable thing or an evidence of progress, but in Mexico now it is. A decree has been issued by the Carranza government in Mexico holding newspaper owners accountable for any false or misleading information of an inflammatory kind that they may publish. The law is needed in Mexico because some papers there in the past have published matter of a wholly untruthful character, designed to inflame the public mind and to create strife and bloodshed. Instances have been recorded wherein the most unwarranted statements have been made about the U. S. affairs and intentions. This was particularly true last fall, when Mexican border happenings were disturbing the country.

Censorship is occasionally good and commendable and this is one of the cases in point.

SHOULD PRESERVE OLD STATE CAPITOL

The Fayette county bar association is earnest in the support of a bill now pending before the legislature which proposes that the old state capitol at Vandalia be maintained and kept by the state as a memorial. The building is now standing in the center of a park 320 feet square filled with natural forest trees. The building is in a fair state of preservation and stands practically as it was first constructed except that the old brick columns supporting the porches have been replaced by iron.

This first capitol building was erected in 1822. It was there that Gov. Coles made his first inaugural address including the sentence which later took on historic importance, "The institution of human slavery is morally wrong and it is duty of the general assembly to pass such laws as will effectively overthrow that institution in whatever form it may exist." Shadrach Bond, Ninian Edwards, Pierre Menard and John Reynolds were other governors of the state when Vandalia was the capital. The first supreme court of Illinois sat there, and that assembly hall knew such men as Abraham Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, David P. Cook, Aaron Gridley, Samuel D. Lockwood, Thomas Lippincott, George Forquer and others of like renown.

Certainly the people of Fayette county who are urging some legislative action at this time to preserve this historic structure to the state have precedent and the facts to support the propriety of their contention.

OLD GLORY I'LL FOLLOW WHEREVER YOU'RE LEADING.

Old Glory I'll follow wherever you're leading.
I'll follow, I'll follow you on.
Your honor and mine has been trampled and bleeding.
So I'll follow, I'll follow you on.

Old Glory I'll follow nor wait for the morrow.
I'll follow, I'll follow you on:
The heart of the world is bitter with sorrow.
So I'll follow, I'll follow you on.

Old Glory I'll follow wherever you're leading.
I'll follow, I'll follow you on:
In patience we've waited with foes have been pleading.
So I'll follow, I'll follow you on.

Old Glory I'll follow wherever you're streaming.
I'll follow, I'll follow you on:
My best I will give that those stars be kept gleaming.
So I'll follow, I'll follow you on.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE PRESIDENT.

Who has all brands of grief and care, all standard brands, and some to spare? Who has the best excuse to swear? The president. Who finds new novelties in grief in every hour, however brief; who is the whole world's goat-in-chief? The president. Who would be glad to see a job to chuck, and earn his wage with saw and buck, who is it long to run amuck? The president. Who is it preys a million bores, and statesmen who have chronic sores, whenever he goes out of doors? The president. Who is it has no hours of ease, and who, however he strives to please, is prodded by our snickersneezes? The president. Who has a million things to vex, a million problems to perplex? Who is it long to be an ex? The president. Who needs, while he pursues the game, men's sympathy, instead of blame? Who is it falls to get the same? The president. Who walks a long and weary road? Who bears a great and grievous load, and feels the smart of whip and goad? The president.

JACKSONVILLE BOY IS ARMY SCHOOL GRADUATE

John Mullenix, Lieutenant of Cavalry is at Huachuca, Ariz., near Border, after course at Ft. Leavenworth.

John C. Mullenix, who since December has held a second lieutenant's commission in the Tenth Ohio Cavalry, is again doing service on the Mexican border, according to word received Wednesday by Robert Mullenix, his brother.

Lieut. Mullenix has for the past few weeks been at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., where he took a course in a training school for officers. Mrs. Mary Mullenix, of South Fayette street his mother, recently returned from Ft. Leavenworth, where she attended the graduation exercises. Lieut. Mullenix had long planned a furlough at this time and a visit to Jacksonville but the sudden change in the military situation, brought about by the war declaration, made even a short visit impossible. He is now at Huachuca, Ariz., according to the word received by Mr. Mullenix here.

As a member of the army medical corps, Mullenix was stationed for a time at Columbus Barracks, O. and it was at the time of the Mexican border trouble at Columbus, N. M., that he enlisted for regular military service. Lieut. Adair, whose place he takes, was killed at Pershing's fight with Mexicans at Parral. Mullenix is a graduate of Jacksonville high school and was a student at Illinois college. His preliminary experience as a pharmacist was secured in this city and he took courses at Michigan university at Ann Arbor, before enlisting as a service.

HIGH HONOR WON BY FORMER I. C. STUDENT

Miss Irene Moore of Nashville, Ill., Chosen as Valedictorian of Class at State University

Miss Irene Moore of Nashville, Ill., a daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. T. Moore of that city, and for two years a student of Illinois College, has been chosen valedictorian of her class at the University of Illinois, according to word received by college friends here. Miss Moore entered Illinois college in the fall of 1913 and two years later went to the state university as a junior, entering without conditions of any kind. Her scholarship average was the highest of any in a large senior class. Miss Moore was elected also to Phi Beta Kappa by a mark several degrees higher than had before been given at the university.

Miss Moore was valedictorian of her class, when she graduated from the Nashville high school in 1912. Miss Moore is the niece of Mrs. Elizabeth Cole, 704 West College avenue, and a cousin of Prof. Stella L. Cole, and Dr. Charles E. Cole. Miss Moore will be remembered by many others in Jacksonville, as during her school years here she made many friends who will find pleasure in the report of her new honors at Champaign. The following clipping is taken from the Nashville Journal:

"Miss Irene Moore, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Moore, is making a splendid record at the Illinois State university at Champaign. Among other prizes she has been awarded a $250 cash prize for excellent scholarship. She is taking a literary and art course, and awarded the scholarship for having achieved the highest grade in the university. She has been selected as valedictorian of her class, the university's highest honor."

CHICAGO CITY OFFICIALS DISAGREE

According to a Chicago Tribune story Mrs. Louise Osborne Rowe and Health Commissioner John H. Robertson are in some difficulty over the attempted dismissal of certain members of the employment bureau. An order was issued dismissing J. W. Calley, superintendent of the bureau, and his six assistants. When Dr. Robertson heard of the dismissal he promptly cancelled the notices. Mrs. Rowe declares that if the notices of dismissal were sent out with her name attached that it was merely a matter of technical procedure as she did not sign the letters. Mrs. Rowe stated further that it was her understanding that Mayor Thompson had authorized the dismissals, and now Chicago people are wondering whether the mayor when he returns from a brief out of town trip, will sustain the action of Mrs. Rowe or that of Dr. Robertson. They are both listed as his friends and both have been publicly commended by him.

IS VERY OLD DWELLING

An old house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown and adjoining their residence on South Mauvasterre street, has been wrecked. The house, which was the Hicks homestead, was occupied many years by Mrs. Brown's parents and it was her childhood home. The complete history of the dwelling is lacking, but it is understood that it was erected in 1826.

The workmen in dismantling the house found the frame-work was of heavy timbers, most of them walnut. The construction was of a type not possible today, as no such lumber is now available.

ADMIRAL TO SPEAK ON WORK OF THE NAVY

Retired Officer to Wear Uniform for Delivery of Address Friday Evening at David Prince School—The Admiral Once a Resident Here.

Rear-Admiral Charles B. T. Moore retired, will deliver an address Friday evening at David Prince school gymnasium under auspices of the Jacksonville Woman's Club, will probably speak on the work of the navy during the present national crisis and all citizens who are interested in the problems now facing our country will be glad to have this opportunity to hear a distinguished naval officer. It is stated that Admiral Moore is an effective public speaker.

Admiral an Illinoisan.

Admiral Moore is a native of Illinois, having been born in Paris, Illinois in 1853. He graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1873. After having filled various grades he was appointed Rear Admiral in June, 1911. He commanded various war ships and has held other important stations. He was naval governor of Tutuila, Samoa; was in charge of the Navy Yard at Philadelphia, and Commandant of the Naval Training Station at San Francisco.

Admiral Moore now resides in Decatur. He has an especial interest in Jacksonville since his father was, for some years pastor of the West Church Church, the predecessor of the present Grace Methodist church. Music will be furnished by the L. W. C. Glee club and Miss Rena M. Lazelle will lead in the singing of patriotic songs. This will be the regular meeting of the woman's club, the admission to the public will be free.

A member of the woman's club committee, arranging for the lecture, asked the admiral if it were customary to appear on such an occasion arrayed in uniform. Admiral Moore replied that it was not his custom to speak in uniform but that in this case he would wear the full insignia of a rear-admiral of the U. S. Navy.

FAVOR MILITARY TRAINING

The Journal is in receipt of a certified copy of the resolutions adopted by the Chicago Society of Illinois college at the annual meeting held recently. The resolution as certified by the secretary, Edwin D. Jackson, sets forth that the members of the society pledge their support to the president of the United States in the prosecution of this war "of democracy vs. autocracy to a successful conclusion." The society also went on record as favoring the adoption of a permanent plan of universal and compulsory military training and service.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carell of Beardstown were added to the list of city shoppers yesterday.

Get at The Source of Your "Skin Diseases"

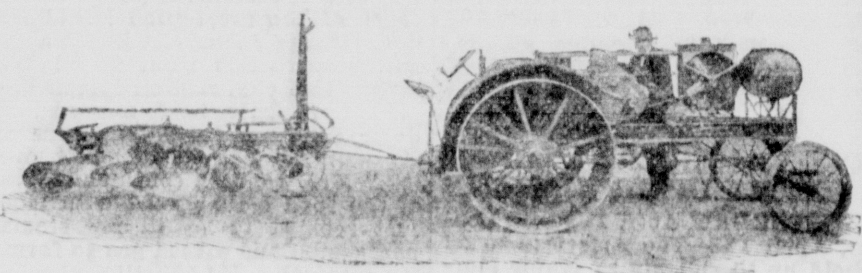

Don't be misled by this term, for the appearance of pimples, boils or rashes indicate something more serious than a mere "breaking out" of the skin. These eruptions are, in reality, signals from nature that the blood is impoverished, debilitated and in need of help. Of course you can sometimes drive away the infected places by applying a salve or lotion, but unless you treat them through the medium of the blood, they will occur again and again.

S. S. S. has proven its wonderful building and tonic properties in thousands of cases arising from disorders of the blood. It washes the poisons from the system and aids the blood in its work of cleansing and invigorating the body organs, throwing off waste matter, and keeping the body in a normal, healthy condition.

Prove these facts for yourself by taking a bottle of S. S. S. and write to our Medical Department for information about your case. Swift Specific Co., 304 Swift Building, Atlanta, Ga.

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

The Morgan County Medical Society Will Be Fifty Years Old In May.

Anyone who has information about any of the early doctors of this county, or of any Medical Meetings or Societies prior to 1866, will confer a favor by sending it to Dr. Walter Frank, secretary of the Morgan County Medical Society, 200 Ayers Bank Building, and it will be edited for this column.

SUBJECTS DISCUSSED.

The secretary's minutes of the first year's meetings of the Morgan County Medical Society furnishes interesting reading for the present generation as they record interesting discussions at the time.

This was peculiarly a preparatory period. The revolutions in America and France and the evolution in England toward free and unhampered individual thought was clearing medicine of the meta physical speculation and theological dogma which had held it back. The physical and chemical laboratories had added many new facts preparatory to the real advent of biology. Medical men the world over were feeling more and more the necessity of systematic study and opportunity for the exchange of thought. The medical world was just being startled by the discoveries of Pasteur and was unconsciously preparing for the new medicine and surgery which would soon develop. The civil war was just past and doctors were back in civil life with many experiences from the bitter conflict and had many hard earned lessons for the better treatment of the sick and injured.

One of the immediate local calls for a medical organization was the fact that at the time of the preliminary meeting cholera was reported to be epidemic or at least prevalent in Greene County and some of the physicians of Jacksonville had visited cases in consultation. For these reasons Dr. Henry Jones, formerly professor of medicine in the Illinois College Medical school was invited to read a paper on "Asiatic Cholera," which he did at the May (1866) meeting. Dr. Jones was a fine specimen of what we now look back to as "the old school" which had not entirely broken away from the formalities and speculative philosophy so prevalent in the eighteenth century doctor and yet had much of the spirit and fact of the advance of the day.

So much time was consumed at this first meeting of our doctors, in the general business of organization that in spite of the fact that the meeting began at 11:00 a. m. there was only time for the good doctor to read a part (he began at the 47 page the minutes say, and only read two hours) of his paper and the discussion was made a special order for the June meeting.

GREAT WAR COUNCIL WILL MEET SOON

The United States as stated heretofore expected to find itself in a dilemma between the policies of its allies, the exigencies of the war and its own views of international law. The allied governments are understood to appreciate this situation and to be anxious not to make it more difficult.

Neither side it is said will miss the opportunity of sounding out the other as to the eventual peace terms and the reconstruction of the the world.

PROPOSES FOOD CONTROL TO WILSON

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Granting of autocratic power, to some branch of the government to deal with the food problem was proposed to President Wilson today by Representative Lever of South Carolina, chairman of the house committee on agriculture. Among the possible ways of increasing the food supply suggested by Mr. Lever was to close down distilleries using grain in the manufacture of whiskey and other intoxicants. He said over 60,000,000 bushels of grain are used annually in this way.

LOWDEN GRANTS REPRIEVE

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—Governor Lowden today granted a reprieve until June 1 to Andrew Pepper, under sentence in Chicago to hang on April 27 for the murder of Christ Dublin.

The reprieve was granted that Pepper may get his case before the pardon board.

ASK GENERAL GOETHALS TO DIRECT BUILDING

President Hopes Canal Builder Will Take Charge of Construction of Wooden Ships

Washington, April 11.—Major General George Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, was formally requested by President Wilson today to take charge of the building of 1,000 wooden ships for foreign commerce.

Increase of overseas tonnage is regarded as an imperative need to defeat the German submarine campaign and keep up the flow of supplies to the entente allies. Consequently the greatest importance is attached to the shipping board's plan for building wooden ships which have been approved by the president and the council of national defense. The entire resources of available shipbuilding yards are to be used.

The president earnestly hopes that General Goethals will undertake the work. If he does, he will be placed in general charge with unlimited authority to organize the building facilities. Recently the general accepted the position of state engineer of New Jersey but it is understood his contract allows him to give up the work if called upon to perform public duties.

The shipping board has $50,000,000 at its disposal for the construction and purchase of vessels and it is estimated that beginning early in the fall ships at the rate of 200,000 tons a month can be turned out.

WESTERN STATES SHOW HEAVIEST RESERVES

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Analysis of the distribution of $2,642,000,000 reserves held by National banks March 5, the date of the last bank call, the comptroller of the currency announced tonight shows that country banks have a far greater excess of reserves than those in central reserve or other reserve cities. Heaviest reserves are shown in the western states. The states whose country banks showed the largest percentage of reserve were Colorado, 41.01 percent; Nebraska, 40.67 percent; Montana, 39.35 percent; Kansas, 39.30 percent; Iowa, 36.76 percent and Louisiana, 36.54 percent.

Among the reserve cities those whose banks held the largest percentage of reserve were Galveston, 47.47 percent; Des Moines, 34.43 percent, and Louisville and Tacoma, each 33.51 percent; San Antonio, 33.15 percent; Houston, 31.71 percent, and Dubuque, 31.68 percent.

STATE BOARD WILL MAKE RECOMMENDATION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 11.—The Illinois board of agriculture will hold a meeting in the near future to take action on a three cornered proposal to congress, which a majority have approved, looking to the encouragement of food production in war time.

The proposals are: A twenty per cent increase in the production of corn for this season. Guaranteeing a minimum price to farmers for raising food products.

The enlisting of boys too young for military duty or of men physically disabled for the army for work on farms under military discipline. Announcement to this effect was made today by B. M. Davison, secretary of the board of agriculture who declared the food situation in Illinois was serious.

40 PERCENT OF WHEAT IN ILLINOIS KILLED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 11.—Forty per cent of the winter wheat in Illinois has been winter killed and much of it is being plowed up, according to the first weekly crop report of the season, issued by the Springfield, weather bureau today. The report continues:

"Out seeding is nearly finished over most of the state and in some places plants have appeared. Plowing for corn is proceeding in the central and southern divisions but none has been planted. Much of the clover and alfalfa has been winter killed, especially in the northern counties. Pastures are starting to grow but they are backward. Fruit trees are blooming in the south part of the state. In the central counties it appears that peaches are generally killed."

DAVENPORT REPORTS TO GOVERNOR LOWDEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 11.—Dean Davenport of the department of agriculture at the University of Illinois, today reported to Governor Lowden the result of the food conservation conferences at St. Louis where were present Secretary Houston of the federal department of agriculture and representatives of practically every state in the union.

Governor Lowden said the results of the conference would be made known through the federal government, but that Illinois stands ready to co-operate fully in any movement to conserve food supplies.

"Plans for the state are being worked out and will be announced later," he said.

STATES ASSAULTS ON GERMAN TRADE UNAVOIDABLE

Amsterdam, April 11.—via London.—Commenting on the breaches with South American republics, the Cologne Gazette says further assaults on German trade may be expected and are unavoidable. It adds:

"The entente is becoming such a monstrosity that its hollowness must soon be apparent. Further accretions can only be regarded as a tribute to Germany's gigantic strength."

AGREE TO AMENDMENT.

Washington, April 11.—An amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $10,500,000 to carry on a year's work on the Mississippi and Sacramento river projects under the flood control act was agreed to today by the senate. Of the total $10,000,000 will be used on the Mississippi.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

A violent snowstorm has served for the moment to hold in leash the British forces which since early Sunday morning had been hammering the Germans hard along the Arras-Lens front. Low-lying clouds and thickly falling snow greatly impeded the movement of the troops Wednesday.

In the early hours of the morning the village and heights of Monchy-Le-Proux, east of Arras, fell into the hands of the British and were held despite two counter-attacks delivered by the Germans, according to London. To the north of this position, Berlin reports the repulse with heavy casualties of British infantry and cavalry attacks near Fampoux and Roeux.

The London communication said that in the neighborhood of Bailecourt, west of Cambria, Field Marshal Haig's men penetrated a German position but later were counter-attacked by superior forces and compelled to return to their former positions. Of this fighting and also of a battle near Hardecourt, (Hargreave) northwest of St. Quentin, Berlin says a thousand British prisoners and twenty five machine guns were taken. Near St. Quentin from Soissons to Rheims and eastward to the Champagne violent artillery duels are being fought between the French and the Germans.

The American flag is to fly immediately over the front in France. The Lafayette flying corps, composed mainly of American aviators, is to adopt the American uniform and carry the stars and stripes during their incursions into enemy territory and in battles in the air with German aviators.

There have been several engagements between the Russian and the Teutonic allies on the Russian front, but no important changes in position have resulted.

The Austrians and Italians on the western portion of the Austro-Italian theater are bombarding each other heavily. On the Corso plateau in the east the Italians have pushed back the Austrians at various points. The Brazilian government has handed the German minister his passports. This action was due to the recent destruction of the Brazilian Steamer Parana by a German submarine.

The Argentine government now announces that it will make no official pronouncement of neutrality in the war between the United States and Germany, considering sufficient its previous declaration that Argentina supported the position of the United States.

TWO HUNDRED FARM JOBS AWAIT MEN

CHICAGO, April 11.—Two hundred jobs for farm laborers await men to fill them, according to Percy L. Prentiss, immigration inspector in charge of the United States employment bureau here.

"It is a serious situation," inspector Prentiss said today. "It seems impossible to get men to work on farms. Unless help of this kind can be secured and the crops taken care of the food situation in the country will be serious in face of the gathering war conditions."

WAR SHIPS OF GERMAN SUBMARINES IN PACIFIC

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—While the German submarines are operating in the Pacific were sent to all steamship captains at sea late today by wireless by order of Lieutenant Commander E. C. Woods of the twelfth naval district here.

The warning said: "Information has this day been received that German submarines are operating in the Pacific. Please notify all ships under your control and ask that they spread the warning broadcast."

ISSUE 591 MARRIAGE LICENSES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 11.—Five hundred and ninety-one marriage licenses were issued today, and at the closing of the bureau a long line of applicants extended its serpentine length about the room, out into the corridor and down the hall. Only four clerks were on duty, the county clerk having withdrawn the extra force assigned to the bureau when the rush began several days ago. Profuse decorations of the national colors were about the office by order of the sheriff as a patriotic reminder to the "slackers."

ANNOUNCE NEW INSURANCE PREMIUMS

New York, April 11.—New rates on policies containing war clauses have been announced thus far by eleven of the great life insurance companies. In most cases military service within continental United States entails no extra premiums. For service abroad all payments are suspended, unless policy holders agree to pay extra premiums amounting to an average of ten per cent of the face value of the policy.

WOULD HAVE PRESIDENT CALL MILLION VOLUNTEERS

Washington, April 11.—A resolution authorizing the president to call for 1,000,000 volunteers was introduced today by Senator Sherman, Republican and laid on the table at his request without debate.

STOCK OF STORAGE EGGS DEPLETED

Washington, April 11.—Practically the entire stock of eggs held in storage through the winter was exhausted March 1, only 3,200 cases remaining from the five million cases held last August 1, the federal bureau of markets announced today.

SUSPEND EXTRA RATE PAYMENT

Denver, Colo., April 11.—The Workmen of the World thru Head Consul L. Boak of Denver, today suspended the extra rate payment for members engaged in army, navy or marine corps service of the United States.

J. H. S. SOPHOMORES SECURE $5 PRIZE

"Stunt Night" in David Prince Gym Proves Big Success, With More Than 100 Attending

The sophomore class were winners of the prize for the best comedy attraction, at the performance given Wednesday evening in David Prince Gymnasium by pupils of Jacksonville High school. Plantation songs were sung in approved comedy style, but it was perhaps the clever appearance of Coach Raymond C. Hufford, who assisted the sophomores, that the favorable decision of the judges was due. The coach was attired as an old "black mammy" and many there were in the audience who could not penetrate his disguise.

Four hundred people or more assembled at the gymnasium for the masquerade party and the program following. This marked the first use of the new stage, completed in double quick time by reason of the untiring work of Miss Anna G. Brown and the boys of her manual training class.

Very attractive was the Junior "circus," replete as it was with rough riders, wild animals and over-curious spectators. There was a steam calliope, too, and the whole performance approached the reality with wonderful success. Miss Esther Wetzel was chairman of the committee and Claude Cully was manager. Mary Alice Price had in charge the "Mother Hubbard" family.

The freshmen gave a musical number which was well received. Three young girls in "old maid" costume sang very sweetly "Three Maids of Lee." Miss Beatrice Dye was at the piano. The singers were Misses Ruth Eastin, Dorothy Towle and Eleanor Ludwig.

The freshmen were followed by the sophomores and then came the J. H. S. Dramatic club with a representation of "The High School Assembly Hall." Joyce Masters took the part of the principal, T. W. Callahan. Coach Hufford took the part of Albert DeWitte. Miss Helen Whitmer took a colored girl's part with pleasing skill.

The Zetaphian society act was a scene from "The Old District School." Albert DeWitte was the pedagogue and William Miller took the part of the duffard. During the geography lesson the duffard showed more scientific knowledge than the "sharks." The public speaking contest was especially good.

The German club gave a scene from "Sleeping Beauty" which was especially beautiful. Miss Mary Louise Newman took the part of the King and Miss Mabel Rayle, the Queen. The story was given in the German language. The costuming in this scene was well chosen and prettily wrought.

The Kappa Gamma girls were the last on the program and in view of this fact they chose a timely subject. Each organization of the school took the stage for a word of greeting and the young women taking the roles spoke their lines well. Miss Esther Wetzel called for the numbers.

The judges were Mrs. Elizabeth Koch, Miss Helen Calky and Miss Irene Kuechler. The prize of five dollars was turned over to the sophomores. The total receipts were forty dollars or more.

TO GRADUATE MIDDIES AHEAD OF USUAL TIME

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 11.—The two senior classes of midshipmen now under instruction at the naval academy are to be graduated far ahead of the usual time under the provisions of an order by Captain Edward E. Eberle, superintendent, issued today by direction of the president.

The present senior class will graduate in September and the next higher class in June of next year. The class at present known as the third class will get its diplomas a full year ahead of the usual time.

FIRE ON BRIDGE GUARD.

Des Moines, Ia., April 12.—James Mooney, a national guardsman, on duty at a railroad bridge across the Racoon river near here was fired upon from the weeds near the track at 1 o'clock this morning (Thursday). Mooney was shot thru the hand. He fired three shots in return. Two men have been arrested.

SENATE CLEARS WAY FOR WAR LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The way for war legislation was cleared in the senate tonight with the passage of the $155,000,000 sundry civil bill, the last of the four annual appropriation bills which failed to pass at the last session of congress. All of the measures have passed the house and amendments added by the senate will be disposed of quickly in conference.

Earlier in the session the senate passed the current army bill carrying $278,000,000 and the military academy bill carrying about $1,349,000. The appropriations in the army bill were made immediately available. Last week the senate passed the general deficiency bill carrying about $164,000,000, of which $100,000,000 is a war emergency fund to be used in the discretion of the president.

MAY LET SUBMARINE CONTRACTS THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Contracts for construction of twenty-eight 800-ton seagoing submarines probably will be awarded by Secretary Daniels before the close of the week. Bids opened at the navy department today carried proposals for 34 vessels. Congress has authorized only 24, however, and ten have already been assigned to the navy yard at Portsmouth, N. H.

Some of today's offers exceeding the authorized cost of $1,300,000 per ship may be accepted because they fix the time of construction at several months below that of other proposals.

HOLDS AMERICAN ARMY UP TO RIDICULE

AMSTERDAM April 11.—via London, April 12.—The American army is held up to ridicule by Major Morant, writing in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, who jeers at the idea that America can give any effective military aid to the allies. Major Morant says:

"The American army is in no danger to Germany. The Civil war cost half a million lives because neither side had a trained army. Now Wilson forgetful of history is trying the same thing but it will be shown once more that the bradaccio of his countrymen is in inverse ratio to their fighting value."

FILES CONFESSION OF ERROR IN LAWSON CASE

DENVER, Colo., April 11.—Attorney General Leslie E. Hubbard today filed a confession of error in the case of John R. Lawson, former district president and international board member of the United Mine Workers of America who was convicted of murder in connection with the strike in the Southern Colorado coal fields in 1914. The attorney general recommended that Lawson be freed. Lawson was sentenced to life imprisonment and released on bond pending an appeal to the supreme court. At present he is working as a miner in a coal mine near Frederick, Colo.

HOLD LOYALTY PARADE

New York, April 11.—A great loyalty parade was held here tonight which was followed by a mass meeting at which a number of patriotic speeches were delivered.

Freeport Woman Is Convinced Tanlac Will Help Many People

DESCRIBES OWN CASE

"I'm Fresh and Rested in the Mornings Now," Mrs. Johnson Asserts

PRAISES NEW MEDICINE

Freeport Ill., April 11.—"I want to recommend this new medicine, Tanlac, and I know it will help others who are bothered as I was, because of the great good it did me," Mrs. George Johnson, wife of a general construction man, of 92 West Street, this city, said on March 6.

"I have been in a nervous, run down condition for a long time and my stomach has been out of order too," Mrs. Johnson continued. "None of the food I ate agreed with me. It just seemed to lay in my stomach undigested and caused gas to form in my stomach. My appetite, also, was very poor. I was so restless and nervous that I couldn't sleep at night, and, of course, as a result of lack of rest I felt weak and tired out all the time."

"After reading so much about Tanlac in the newspapers I decided to try it. The relief I have gained convinces me that Tanlac will help anybody troubled as I was. This medicine seemed to improve me right away. The nervousness has entirely disappeared now and my system in general has been benefited. My appetite is much better and everything I eat seems to agree with me. I'm never bothered with gas in my stomach any more. I sleep soundly at night and get up in the mornings feeling fresh and rested."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like and has proven a fine reconstructive tonic, building up to health and strength, weak, run down men and women.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug company; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's and in Versailles at A. G. Bates' drug store.—Adv.

EASTER TRIBUTE
To the Dead that are To Be.
To the dead that are to be
In the cause of liberty
Now lift we high the Lily
In the way
Easter day.

Flushed with bravery now their brow
Death they fear not, when or how—
They are with the living now.
Salve—vos
Salutamus.

Salutamus, Morturi.
Now the quick, but soon to die—
Wreathes we bend to glorify.
Hear our cry—
God bless thee.

Other days we hailed the dust
Scoured the sabres brown with rust.
But today—today we must
Hold thee dear,
Hold thee dear.

Lilies rising from the clay
Trumpet for the festal day
When in deeds the martyrs pray—
Christus et Patria.

Mortals now but deathless there
We hold thee, clasp thee, lest ye bear
Alone, afield the nation's care,
Hodie—
Salve.

CUT-OVER PINE LAND
OWNERS IN CONFERENCE

Meet to Discuss Use, Sale and Settlement of These Lands—Plan of Development Calls for Attraction of Colonists

New Orleans, La., April 11.—Owners of cut-over pine lands on the coastal plain from Virginia to Texas to the number of several hundred, have assembled in this city to discuss problems relative to use, sale and settlement of these lands, and questions of co-related commercial and industrial interest.

The meeting, which will continue three days, is being held under the joint auspices of the New Orleans Association of Commerce, the Southern Settlement and Development Organization of Baltimore, and the Southern Pine Association of Louisiana.

The general theme of the conference, aside from the national food supply, will deal with the possibilities of evolving present practical beneficial use of these lands by methods not only of colonization but of cattle, hog and sheep raising by the present owners.

The conference will endeavor to prove that it is practicable to make these lands largely self-sustaining and simultaneously effect practical re-forestation and conservation. Out of the conference will be evolved a permanent organization to work out the problems along definite and practical lines.

The plan of development calls for the attraction of colonists to these cut-over pine lands, which are among the most fertile areas of the South, and to convert them into farms, by selling them at low prices, on long-time payments, and to provide machinery, horses, and even food supplies, to be sold to desirable immigrants at similar low figures and long credits. It is estimated that these plans will bring more than 100,000 farmers to the south within the next five years.

A REAL TOM THUMB WEDDING

Chicago, Ill., April 11.—Probably the most unique of all the Easter week weddings in Chicago is the one to take place today in which the contracting parties are Miss Ethel Johnson of this city and "Little Chris" Grabner, a midge and baseball mascot hailing from Oshkosh, Wis. The bridegroom is 46 years old and only 59 inches tall, six tie the beam at 122 pounds. The bridegroom is smaller and eight years younger than the bridegroom.

SPRING TOURNEY AT ASHEVILLE

Asheville, N. C., April 11.—The annual spring golf tournament of the Asheville Country Club was opened here today and will be continued until the end of the week. The many prominent players participating and the splendid condition of the course combine to give promise of one of the most successful tournaments ever held on the local links. The opening day's program called for a qualifying round of eighteen holes, with the ninety-six best scores to qualify.

ELECTION OF TAMMANY
MAN PREDICTED

New York, April 11.—The congressional campaign in the Fifteenth district of New York closed today, preliminary to the special election to be held tomorrow for the choice of a successor to the late Michael F. Conry. The election of Thomas F. Smith, the Democratic nominee, is generally predicted, as the district has a large Democratic majority. The candidates running in opposition to Mr. Smith are John N. Boyle, Republican; Joseph D. Cannon, Socialist; and George H. Mann, who is running as an independent on a platform of war.

SECRET SERVICE MEN
FRUSTRATE COAST PLOTS

San Diego, Cal., April 11.—Plots which had for their object the destruction or disabling of the Hercules Powder Plant at National City, south of here and the dye factory of the Lower California Chemical company at Chula Vista, near National City, were frustrated by secret service agents, it became known today. As a result of evidence in the hands of government officials, arrests of several suspected persons are expected within 48 hours.

U. S. DESIRES AVIATORS
TO REMAIN IN FRANCE

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Baker has prepared a communication to Americans now serving in the French aviation corps assuring them that the United States government recognizes the service they are rendering and is desirous that they shall continue in that work.

The Americans are a valuable fighting element of the French air service and war department officials feel that they are doing more important work at the actual front than they could render at home in training recruits.

NO SCHOOL TODAY

The spring vacation of the schools of the city will begin this morning and continue through the week. A number of the teachers will take advantage of this opportunity to attend a teachers' convention in Bloomington. All school sessions will re-open Monday.

The six grade school buildings of the city were visited by Y. M. C. A. men yesterday and number of pledges were secured from teachers. At noon luncheon today, the first report will be made by a ladies' team, led by Mrs. J. H. Danskin. It is possible that a second team of woman workers may be placed in the field.

HOOVER ACCEPTS POST
AS HEAD OF BOARD

Makes Statement to the Associated Press, Outlining His Plans.

London, April 11.—After having accepted the position of chairman of the American Food Board, Harold C. Hoover today made the following statement to the Associated Press, outlining his plans:

"I will at present continue as chairman of the Belgian relief commission but will return to the United States shortly. The Dutch navy taken over control of relief inside Belgium and Northern France and opened relations with the German government, the activities of the Belgian relief committee now being confined to financing the purchase and delivery of supplies at Belgian frontier.

"Beginning today I am bidding wide inquiry in France, England and Italy, in co-operation with government departments into the existing food situation, the prospects of the coming harvest, important necessities and the methods of regulating food control as at present in operation at their working results in allied countries.

"One important feature of this inquiry will be the methods used to control prices and for the elimination of speculation. The staff of the relief commission which, recently evacuated, Belgium have volunteered to use are the details of this investigation. By virtue of the complete data in the hands of the various governments it should require but a short time for the co-ordination of all essential matters."

EXCEPTIONAL HOME TALENT
MONDAY NIGHT AT GRAND

The big D. O. K. K. show is nearing perfection. Rehearsals have been held every day for more than a week and the director, Mr. George E. Shaw, is pleased with results so far obtained and looks for a production with a professional appearance.

Many of the performers in last year's "Pi-Pi" production also staged by Mr. Shaw are again taking part. Miss Willa Miller will be seen in a special dance also. Miss Helen Obermeyer, Mrs. Harry Gay will sing a Moon Serenade with a chorus of fifty people. Mr. Harry Obermeyer has a song with ten High School girls. Miss Helen Strandberg who was seen in the Elk's performance a short time ago has a leading part and a particularly clever number with ten young men. Other sketches will be announced later.

ECONOMY BY WOMEN

Spokesman at Council of General Federation of Women's Clubs Advocates Budgeting of Family Income and Substitution of Cheaper and More Nutritious Foods.

New Orleans, April 11.—Practice by women of economy in American homes by budgeting the family income, exercising wisdom in purchases, eliminating waste of food and the substitution of cheaper and more nutritious foods for those at high price, was urged by Mrs. Joseph C. Gawler, of North Yakima, Wash., chairman of the Home Economics Department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in the Council meeting of the Federation held here today. Mrs. Gawler also suggested the planting of home gardens and the canning of surplus food products.

Quoting from a recent statement of the Secretary of Agriculture that there was in this country an annual food waste of about $700,000,000, resulting chiefly from bad preparation and cooking and improper care in the handling of food, Mrs. Gawler said:

"The Charge of Inefficiency. "When an official of the government feels it necessary to call attention to inefficient home management as a contributing cause to the nation's dilemma, is it not time for women to make a real and earnest study of the subject of home economics and relieve themselves of this stigma?"

Speaking of the high cost of women's dress, Mrs. Gawler declared: "Our hope is that it will strengthen our plea to women to adopt a sensible yet artistic, becoming street dress, and then wear it till it can no longer be worn. Also women are experimenting in some parts of the country with standardized street suits, and generally approve the suggestion, Mrs. Gawler said the women lack the courage to wear them.

Pointing out the necessity of setting the right example to young girls in dress, Mrs. Gawler suggested that if other means failed, such girls be placed upon an allowance sufficient only for actual needs and compelled to make their own clothes. "No other method," she said, "will sooner bring a girl to a realization of standards and values."

KANSAS STATE BANKERS' MEETING

Kansas City, Kas., April 11.—The questions of joining the State banks with the federal reserve system and the par collection of checks are the two leading subjects slated for discussion at the annual convention of the Kansas State Bankers' Association now in session here. The convention was opened today and will be continued over tomorrow.

MADE LOW BID ON BRIDGE

Bids were opened yesterday for a bridge to be constructed in Fulton county, to be constructed under the direction of the state highway commission. The bid of the Illinois Steel Bridge Co. of this city of approximately $14,000 was the lowest submitted. Action has not yet been taken but the contract will probably be awarded to the local company.

RELIEF COMMITTEE PLANS WORK ON BROAD LINES

Contribution of $1,000 Needed for Aid of Dependent Families of Soldiers—Response Thus Far Not Up to Expectation

In another column appears an appeal from the officers of the Soldiers' Aid society of Morgan county asking that immediate contributions be made for the relief fund. A meeting of the committee in charge of this work was held Wednesday morning at the Ayers National Bank building. The report of the sub-committee appointed to investigate and find out the actual cases where aid is necessary set forth that fourteen families are now wholly without necessities, or in need of some relief. Mention was made of the fact that the government has ordered the release from the national guard of all married men or others who have dependent relatives. This order will have no influence on the work of the committee for the present.

To Meet Future Conditions
E. E. Crabtree, chairman of the committee, received yesterday a letter from Andrew Russell, state auditor, enclosing a check for $25 and stating that he will contribute a like amount each month as long as the need exists. As previously stated, the work of the committee will be organized along broad lines and aside from collecting the fund for the relief of the dependent families and making the proper distribution, the committee will later on be organized in a comprehensive way, including representatives from all parts of the county. This will be done with the end in view of meeting conditions when there is a much larger enlistment from this county and also so that it may be possible to furnish information which may be wanted by the state or federal government.

May Include Red Cross Work

Certainly the people of this community owe it to the men who have enlisted in the militia and are now doing service, to see that proper provision is made for their families. The relief committee should not be expected to make personal solicitation for funds and all who are ready to contribute are urged to call on Treasurer Crabtree with the money or information as to what they will give at a later time. It is probable that the work of the organization will be outlined in such a way that the Red Cross movement will be included. This city and county have been somewhat negligent in this regard as in other communities hundreds of persons, both men and women, have been enrolled in the Red Cross work and have been active in preparing bandages and supplies, and in many cases in taking training in nursing so that they may be able to join actively in relief work if the need arise.

Report of Sub-committee
Already the committee has distributed more than $100 to needy families of soldiers and it is certain that several hundred dollars more will be required, even for the present necessities. As previously noted, the contributions have not been many and as it is the committee's estimate that $1,000 will be required to meet the necessary expenditures of the next few weeks, it is earnestly hoped that citizens will come forward generously with subscriptions. It has been suggested that subscriptions be made on the monthly basis but if this is not satisfactory to the contributors they can follow the plan of making their donations in a lump sum.

OPEN AIR SCHOOL GARDENS
The garden at the open air school was put in yesterday, the most favorable day of the season for such work. It would be proper to say gardens instead of garden, for most of the pupils of the school have individual plots where they will raise lettuce, radishes and some other vegetables of that kind. Then there is a larger space devoted to potatoes. Early in the day City Commissioner Cox sent a team to plow and harrow the ground and later on under direction of Prof. Carter and pupils from the high school the seed potatoes were prepared in the most approved manner and planted.

BROOKLYN REVIVAL IS PROGRESSING WELL

Rev. E. K. Towle Gives Strong Address on "Changing Jacob's Name"—Tonight "Meeting the Crises."

"Changing Jacob's Name" was the subject of the Rev. E. K. Towle Wednesday evening, speaking to a good sized audience at Brooklyn M. E. church revival. The revival opened Tuesday night. Mr. Towle speaking on "Christian Manhood and Fellowship with the Lost and Weak." Interest both nights was good. This evening the subject of the sermon will be "Meeting the Crises."

Mr. Towle took his text from Genesis 32-28 and told of Jacob's long homeward journey after twenty years of absence. "At the gateway of Esau's estate, he prays, not because he is sorry but because he is filled with fear. Danger and sickness causes many people to appear very pious. When everything goes well they forget God. Some pray only when the preacher calls. You can tell by the way the children act. Jacob undertook to wrestle with God and God broke his thigh. God has to put many a man on the flat of his back to make him think. Jacob tried to get a clean settlement from God without making a clean breast of his sin. The only way you can make peace with God is to make things right. Make wrongs right and God will bless you. If some people in this country would pay back what they have cheated others out of, they would not have so much tax money to pay."

"But you can't keep a dishonest dollar down. You may pile a bank on it, or a farm, but that dirty dollar will overturn everything you pile on it and come to the top to curse and damn you."

"Jacob's name was changed because he cut out his meanness, and prevailed over it. He became a Prince of righteousness."

People get right with God. I am more anxious about the church getting right just now than anything else. The community will listen to the Gospel when the church is right and at work.

"Live your religion; govern your children by it. Bake your bread by it; sweep your houses by it; put up your stove pipe by it; trade horses by it; spank your children by it."

"We have power with people, when folks see our religion lived into our everyday life; that it makes us happy and honest."

CONTRACT LET FOR STATE AID ROAD IN MORGAN CO

Highway Leading From Jacksonville to Woodson Will Be Graded, Drained and Oiled—Contract Price $14,121.

In Springfield yesterday the state highway commission awarded the contract to the Coking Cement Co. of this city for the improvement of a highway known as Section C in this county. The company's bid was $14,121.11, which was just a few cents below the engineers' estimate of cost. The Coking Cement Co. will handle the work in connection with F. J. Blackburn and A. E. Williamson. Mr. Coking will attend to the oiling work and Mr. Williamson will superintend the grading and the concrete work. Mr. Blackburn last fall purchased complete road building equipment which was used successfully on the Chapin road improvement and will be utilized for the new contract.

Job To Be Done July 1st

The work is to begin in about fifteen days with the expectation that the job can be completed about the first of July if weather conditions are favorable. The specifications call for an improved roadway twenty-four feet wide with an oiled surface of fifteen feet. Concrete curbs will be built at all points where needed and there will be retaining walls on some hill-sides to prevent wash. The general specifications are the same as for the Chapin road.

The road to be improved is known as the South Main street road which leads from Jacksonville to Woodson. Improvement work will begin at the south line of South Jacksonville and extend to the north limits of Woodson. The contract does not cover the roadway of the village. At the south limits the improved road will stretch to the south to a point near the Henry crossing of the Chicago & Alton railroad. As there will be about $1,000 in the state aid improvement fund after paying for this contract, it will be possible to extend the road still further south toward Murrayville, but this will not be done until it has been determined what kind of improvement is to be made at the Henry crossing. It will be remembered that this matter is now before the utilities commission.

To Old Chapin Road

It was not possible to complete the Chapin road last fall and the oiling was postponed until this spring. The Coking Cement Co. is now ready to proceed with that work and H. C. Hartman, engineer representing the state highway commission, is here to superintend this work. There is also some improvement work in progress at the western terminus of the road, and this stretch will be about one mile in length. It was possible to make this improvement on account of some changes made in the original contract for the Chapin road betterments.

AN INTERESTING DOCUMENT.

T. M. Tomlinson has in his possession a very interesting document which he prizes highly. It is a letter written in 1824 by Mr. Tomlinson's great grandfather, Joseph Tomlinson, to his brother, Nathan Tomlinson, New York, and was sent in the days when envelopes were not used so a large sheet was taken for the letter and half a page left blank and the letter was so folded that the blank parts were it outside and held together with sealing wax. The letter was probably written with a quill pen and the best of ink as the writing is simply perfect, not a particle of fading to be seen. The letter was an affectionate document, expressing great esteem for the brother and vouched in quaint language such as was used at the time.

TRI... TO STEAL FLAG.

Several days ago F. E. Farrell flung an American flag to the breeze at his residence, 1212 West College avenue. Mr. Farrell had read in the Journal the instructions about hauling down the flag at sunset and putting it up at sunrise. "It was all right," Mr. Farrell said, "about taking the flag down at sunset but it was a hard job to get up in time to get it up at sunrise." So he left the flag floating in the breeze. Tuesday night some one who evidently wanted a flag decided to appropriate Mr. Farrell's. An attempt was made to jerk it down but it was fastened securely and the thief only got about half of it leaving the other half on the dwelling. Mr. Farrell has the piece at the bank and said he would be glad to give it to the party who has the other piece if he will call.

MILITARY TRAINING DISCUSSED BY COLLEGE MEN

Action Postponed by Students on the Hill Until Information is Received From Other Colleges.

A meeting of students of Illinois college was held Wednesday morning to discuss the question of military training. Action in the matter was deferred until some future meeting after quite a lengthy discussion.

A letter was read by Coach Harmon from L. C. Brown, head of the Little Nineteen conference asking how the students felt toward general physical training instead of intercollegiate athletics.

At the meeting Wednesday there was some confusion over the matter and a motion was voted on that military training be substituted for intercollegiate athletics. The motion was defeated.

Coach Harmon will go to Chicago Friday to attend a conference of representatives of Colleges of America to discuss the participation of college men in the war. President Rummelkamp has a letter from John S. Nolen, president of Lake Forest college, saying the main question to come up is whether college men should enlist in regular militia companies as privates or take training in officers' corps.

TABERSKI AND ALLEN

IN TITLE MATCH

Akron, Ohio, April 11.—The championship at continuous pocket billiards is the title at stake in the matches to be commenced here tonight between Frank Taberski of Kansas City, Taberski is the present champion and Allen is a former holder of the title. Taberski had held the title since September of last year. In six months he has successfully defended it against five challengers. The contest with Allen will be at 450 points, played in three sessions of 150 each. The championship trophy and stakes of $150 a side are at issue. In addition, a purse of $700 will be divided, 65 per cent going to the winner and 35 per cent to the loser. Accordingly, the winner's share will be $455 and the loser's $450.

FLORIDA GOOD ROADS MEETING

Tallahassee, Fla., April 11.—The movement for better highways in Florida promised to receive a decided impetus as a result of the twentieth annual convention of the Florida State Good Roads association, which met in this city today with an unusually large attendance. Vice President J. R. Benton called the gathering to order this afternoon and Governor Catts delivered an address of welcome. Organization, Federal and State aid, the employment of convict labor in road building and a variety of other subjects are scheduled to receive attention at the convention which will continue in session two days.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant result from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two ever night just to keep right. Try them 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Some Jacksonville Women's War Work

By Ennsley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society.)

When the Civil War came on, the women of Jacksonville at once began doing their part. Space and other reasons may prevent naming all who took an active share in the good work, but their labors were continued down to the welcoming dinners given at the end of the War.

Mr. Lincoln's proclamation calling for troops came Monday, April 15, 1861. As recently stated in these sketches, our two companies went to battle on the morning of April 22, 1861.

Some of our ladies spent more or less of Sunday, April 21, in making a proper silk flag, which was presented to the Hardin Light Guard, in the center of the Public Square, by Miss Frances Kirby, now Mrs. Jas. McLaughlin, early in the morning the boys left for Springfield and Cairo. Capt. Wm. A. Kirby was one of those who went. The contemplated monument in the center of the Square will therefore be a marker of this historic event.

Help 14th Regiment

One of the first works done by the ladies and some men and boy helpers, was, on a very cold Sunday, to gather blankets, quilts, comforts and overcoats and send them out to the quarters of the 14th Ill. Regiment, Col. Jno. M. Palmer commanding, at Camp Duncan, the Morgan County Fair Grounds. Many of the men had come clad only in light and old clothes, expecting at once to get their uniforms, which were not forthcoming for weeks, and suffered from the cold. The writer, with his cousin J. Wilson Thompson, spent that Sunday afternoon with a carriage, gathering up the warming materials, and taking them out to the camp.

The heaviest and most continuous work done by the ladies was, for some days giving a dinner, to a company at a time, to the soldiers, in "Union Hall," the old Congregational church. They also got to presenting the men with a bouquet for each. This is to show that flowers were not for the officers alone.

The 14th began rendezvousing here in April and left about June 25th, so the ladies had opportunity to do a good deal for them.

Flannel Shirts and Havelocks

Among the next things done was making grey flannel shirts for the soldiers, our government being "unprepared" as to almost all supplies. There was also a rage for Havelocks, which were at first expected to be of much value in the South. But these were soon given up. The havelock was a head covering, a sort of hood, covering the cap, and coming down over the back of the neck, to prevent sun-stroke. It was made of white cotton cloth, and had its origin in India during the Sepoy rebellion of 1857, of which Gen. Henry Havelock was a hero.

The day Grant's regiment passed thru here, a number of our ladies were gathered at the old First Presbyterian church, making flannel shirts. As the coming hero passed along the ladies waved these flags at him.

The writer does not recall what was done for the 101st regiment, raised here, and quartered at Camp Duncan.

Flags

But in the summer of 1861 a flag was made for the 32nd Ill., of which Dr. Wm. S. Fildgar was surgeon, and one for the 34th Ill., in which was a company raised by Capt. Edward McConnell, and in which were the Rawlins boys, among others. These flags were made at the home of Mrs. Joshua Moore. Her sister, Miss Eliza N. McMackin presented the flag to the 34th, at Springfield. The other fellows "got it," but it was returned, and is now in the flag room in the State House in Springfield.

In May, 1864, some younger ladies made a flag, which they took up to Camp Butler, near Springfield, and presented to the 145th Ill., of which Prof. R. C. Crampton was Lieut.-Colonel, there being a company in it from here. Dr. Geo. R. Bibb succeeded Crampton as Captain of it.

No "Red Cross," but "Ladies Aid"

There was no Red Cross organization in those days, but, sooner or later, Soldiers' Aid Societies were formed by the ladies of this and other places, and they continued their work during the War.

These societies made clothes and hospital supplies, sent cakes and other good things, put up fruit, and wrote letters to the men. They also had fairs and sales and dinners, and raised funds for the sick and wounded soldiers.

The Christian Commission

As the War wore along the need of organized relief for soul and body was seen, and the Christian Commission was organized and did a great work in ameliorating the miseries of the conflict. Our ladies sent supplies and money to this department.

It was to help this that M. P. Ayers, Chaplain McCabe and Wm. Reynolds, of Peoria, canvassed this county, and with the help of Mr. Jacob Strawn's gift of $10,000, raised $22,000 in Morgan county, in about two weeks, in the summer of 1864. A ladies work out about Orleans furnished about twenty two hundred dollars to this.

Thanksgiving Dinner

In 1863, at least, the ladies of Jacksonville gave materials for their Thanksgiving dinners to the wives and families of our absent soldiers. A subscription to help this was raised among the students of Illinois College, and Miss Mary A. Rankle, of Doddsville, McDonough county, who had two or three brothers in the service, collected a sum of money from the pupils of the Jacksonville Female Academy.

The soldiers' families were one of the cares of the Ladies' Aid.

Wood Hauling

A kindred work, the done by the men, was, in the great political processions here in the Fall of 1864, when many cords of wood were brought in, joined the processions, and were given to the soldiers' families. Coal was not then commonly used, as it is now.

"When Johnny Comes Marching Home"

Was the title of a song which came out in those days, and great joy was expected and realized when the "boys in blue" got back.

The ladies made dinners for "the returning braves" and graced the festivals with their presence, their smiles, and their glad work of preparation.

A feature of women's work was knitting woolen socks for the soldiers, socks not then being manufactured in quantity as is now done.

It is to be considered in this connection that there was at that time a great shortage of all kinds of manufactured articles, which are now plentiful and taken as a matter of course.

Women's Tears and Woes

Many a woman in those days gave to their country of their fullest hearts devotion, and lost fathers, husbands, sons, brothers and lovers.

This is the saddest toll which War always exacts from the gentle and helpful sex.

Col. Matt H. Starr, who was mortally wounded in the raid on Memphis in 1864, was brought back here and died of his wounds. Among those mourning for him was the young lady to whom he was engaged.

Fairs

One of the most available means whereby women could raise funds was by having fairs. Great fairs having all sorts of things for sale, were held in the greater cities. Quincy had the largest one near here—in these both men and women joined. The proceeds usually going to the sick and wounded soldiers.

The smaller places had their fairs also, about what the ladies now hold for churches, and now called bazaars.

Jacksonville had a large and successful affair of this sort held in Strawn's Hall for two days, as recalled. Many things were presented for sale, among them being a cornplanter. Dinners, for pay, were given, and a large amount of money for the place, was realized. It was an entertainment creditable to the town.

Personal Services

Many ladies gave personal attention to the families of the soldiers, and to at least one sick soldier who had come home to die—as referred to last week in reference to Mrs. Anna Caldwell Hamilton.

The name of Mrs. Hamilton, who was a cousin of Mrs. Joseph Duncan, wife of the Governor, suggests how the Revolution and the preservation of the Union were united in her history. For Mrs. Hamilton was a granddaughter of the Rev. James Caldwell, the "Fighting Parson," for whom our local D. A. R. chapter is named. Both Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Duncan had Caldwell daughters of Mrs. Caldwell—for whom our street in the West End is named.

A letter is extant, written to one of our ladies by a soldier, expressing his appreciation of her writing to him. He belonged in New York state, but was in the South when the War broke out, and had some unpleasant experience on that account. He got to Union headquarters, enlisted, and was apparently a good soldier.

not to let the efforts fall now that such a good beginning has been made.

St. Louis, April 11.—Chicago won the opening game of the American League season here by defeating St.
Louis 7 to 2. Hamilton held Chicago to three hits until the eighth when the visitors rallied, a single, two doubles and a triple producing three runs. An error by Sisler, two doubles and a home run off Weiman gave them four more.

Boston, 10; New York, 3.
New York, April 11.—The New York Americans proved an easy victim for the champion Boston team in the season's opening game today, the visitors winning 10 to 3. Ruth,
Boston's star left hander, held New York to three hits and a wild throw by Barry ended New York in scoring.

Major General Leonard Wood threw out the first ball and with his staff reviewed a military drill of the
New York players.

TRY "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS
IF SICK OR BILIOUS

Tonight! Clean Your Bowels and Stop Headache, Colds, Sour
Stomach.

Get a 10 cent box now.
Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—
turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowels action for months.
Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.—Adv.

Among Subjects to be Discussed

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—Physicians, health and sanitation experts and delegates from social service organizations all over Illinois will meet here tomorrow for the first annual convention of the Illinois Health and Welfare association. The sessions will last two days.

Tomorrow morning, heads of the sub-departments in the office of the state board of health, will discuss their particular problems, and two or three other addresses will be given by experts from other cities in the state. One of the interesting addresses from the viewpoint of cities will be that of Dr. Gustave Reudiger, director of public health at LaSalle, who will discuss "Municipal Health Departments."

Dr. C. W. East of the state board of health will talk on "The Problems and the After Treatment of Infantile Paralysis." Dr. East recently completed thirty clinical conferences dealing with the infantile scourge which it is feared, will visit Illinois again this summer.

Governor Lowden, Dr. C. St. Clair
Drake, secretary of the state board of health, and Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago, will speak at a banquet tomorrow night.

Mrs. Minnie Cleary left last evening for Lincoln, Nebraska, to visit her brother George. Wait and other friends and relatives. Mrs. Cleary will be absent about two weeks.

Playing Patriotic Airs

Chicago, April 11.—The National League season was opened here today with a five to three victory for Chicago over Pittsburgh. Bunched hits by the locals, coupled with Vaughn's good pitching and fast
fielding was responsible for the victory.

Captain Larry Doyle, who before the game was said to be a cripple on account of his last year's injury to his ankle, proved the star player for Chicago. His batting was responsible for the first run and his fielding saved Vaughn and probably the game on two occasions.

To add to the gaiety of the inaugural, a number of soldiers and members of the naval reserve with a band at the head of each, paraded
the field playing patriotic airs.

A recruiting station was opened at the ball park.

cloth with a little Dandermine and carefully draw it through your hair,
taking one small strand at a time, hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle

Complete Line of
Calendars and Advertising Novelties
For All Lines of Business

From the number and size of orders received daily from our Illinois, Missouri and Iowa salesmen, we are convinced that we have the year's greatest products in our various lines. This, with mail orders pouring in from various other states, also proves that our prices and manner of doing business are more than fair.
The growth of our company has been so rapid during the past few months that we have issued $10,000 more stock, which in a few weeks will be capitalized at $20,000.
This will enable us to take care of the largest or smallest order in a quick and satisfactory manner, giving our customers the very best prices.

MAY DELIVERY OF WHEAT IN DEMAND
Rains Favor Wheat Bears as to New Crop Months—Market as a Whole Ranges From 2 1/4 Cents Down to
2 Cents Advance

Chicago, April 11.—Good rains in the wheat district southwest favored the wheat bears today, as to new crop months, but had little effect on the May delivery, which was in brisk demand by millers and at the seaboard. The quotations closed unsettled at 2.06 1/2, 2.06 1/2
May, and 2.06 1/2 to 2.07 1/2 July, with the market at a whole ranging from 2 1/4 cents to 2 1/2 cents advance compared with yesterday's finish.

Corn, looking to be and oats 1/2 cent to 3/4 cent in provisions the outcome varied from five cents loss to gains of 15.
Free selling of July and September
wheat was in evidence from the east.
Most of the trade was inclined to believe that the loss in winter wheat would not be as heavy as recently indicated.

Notwithstanding the lowering of prices for deferred options, millers and export interests were paying the highest premiums yet for nearby deliveries of wheat.
Corn reflected the heaviness of July and September wheat.

Outs were relatively steady on account of a fair demand from export interests.
Duckers buying railroad provisions, included in the market, were depressed on account of a material decline in the value of hogs.

WHITE HALL VETERANS PLEASED BY ACTION HERE

Soldiers Monument Ass'n. Interested in Local Plans for Monument—New Road Order to be Used on Streets—Other News Notes.

White Hall, April 10.—Miss Maude Bradburn returned to Nebo Monday, after a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Bradburn. She has been serving as cashier of the Minier State Bank there since the first of the year.

A. H. Varter, president of the Farmers' State Bank of Medora, spent Monday here on business. He says that five young men left Medora Sunday to join the army and that more will follow.

The city has received a new road order, and it will be put to work on the streets early in May. The city has authorized the purchase of four car loads of road oil.

J. Wes Tallery motored down to Jersey county last week and was the guest of Ray Pearce, a prominent farmer of that section.

Rev. M. S. Metzler, new pastor of the Christian church at Waverly, was in town several days this week looking after property interests.

The condition of Oscar Rutschke has shown some improvement, but he is still a very sick man. A specialist from Jacksonville was in attendance upon him Monday evening.

The officers of the White Hall Soldiers' Monument Association are pleased to note the action in Morgan county in deciding to erect a monument to the memory of the defenders of the nation. White Hall's monument enterprise naturally arouses unusual interest in such matters, and when it was seen that an effort was being made to have a rest room answer the purpose of a monument at Jacksonville, officers and veterans here expressed regret it is very gratifying to all patriotic people here that the monument is to be erected at Jacksonville.

Hoodlums in White Hall
Evidences of hoodlums have been noted in White Hall recently. One evening last week some one fired a bullet into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Violett in the southwest part of the city, and the police can assign no cause other than devilry. The bullet passed through
